Franz Schubert (1797-1828) Mass No. 2 in G, D 167

Schubert wrote this simple but charming setting of the Mass in 1815 for his local church in Liechtenthal, a suburb of Vienna. He was just 18 years old. The original accompaniment was for strings and organ, but when it was published thirty years later, his brother Ferdinand added parts for wind and timpani.

This youthful work is a fine example of Schubert's lyrical skill, heard to particularly fine effect in the Kyrie and Benedictus. The setting owes its formal plan to Mozart's and Haydn's short Viennese Masses, especially in the Sanctus where a weighty opening section is followed by a lively, vigorous fugue. The Gloria, too, displays a contrast of mood but here a lyrical central section is framed by music of great fire. The Credo opens and closes quietly with the Crucifixus section providing a more forceful episode. The Agnus Dei, with its choral pleas interspersing the soloists' phrases, brings the work to a peaceful conclusion.

John Rutter (born 1945) Requiem

1. Requiem Aeternam (Chorus)
2. Out of the Deep (Chorus)
3. Pie Jesu (Soprano Solo and Chorus)
4. Sanctus (Chorus)
5. Agnus Dei (Chorus)
6. The Lord is my shepherd (Chorus)
7. Lux Aeterna (Soprano Solo and Chorus)

This Requiem was written in 1985 and first performed in October of that year. Following the precedent established by Brahms and Faurè, amongst others, it is not strictly a setting of the Requiem Mass as laid down in Catholic liturgy but instead is made up of a personal selection of texts, some taken from the Requiem Mass and some from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer.

Programme Notes

The seven sections of the work form an arch-like meditation on the themes of life and death: the first and last movements are prayers on behalf of all humanity, movements 2 and 6 are psalms, 3 and 5 are personal prayers to Christ and the central Sanctus is an affirmation of divine glory.

Gabriel Faure (1845-1924)

Cantique de Jean Racine, Op. 11

Jean Racine (1639–99) was one of Europe's leading dramatists, and one of the few French classical playwrights to have had any success outside their own country. His other writings are less often remembered, and it is only because of Faure that anyone except a literary specialist is aware that in 1688 he published translations of a series of Latin hymns for the days of the week. "Verbe égal au Très-Haut" is a free version of Consors paterni luminis, the hymn for Tuesday matins, which was thought at the time to be by St Ambrose, the fourth-century bishop of Milan. Matins was sung, at least in strict monasteries, during the night and the words refer to breaking the night's silence with praise to God, putting to flight dark's evil spirits and driving away sloth, though Racine's classical phraseology is less specific than the original. Faure wrote his setting in 1865 at the end of his student days and it won the composition prize at his college, the École Niedermeyer. It has a mature simplicity that most students would foolishly scorn!

Text and translation

*Verbe égal au Très-Haut,
Notre unique espérance,
Jour éternel de la terre et des cieux,
De la paisible nuit,
Nous rompons le silence,
Divin Sauveur jette sur nous les yeux!
Repands sur nous le feu de ta grâce puissante,
Que tout l'enfer fuie au son de ta voix,*

Programme Notes

*Dissipe le sommeil d'une âme languissante,
Qui la conduit al'oubli de tes lois,
O Christ sois favorable a ce peuple fidèle
Pour te bénir maintenant rassemble,
À ta gloire immortelle
Et de tes dons qu'il retourne comblé.*

Word equal to the Most High, our only hope,
Eternal day of earth and sky, Of peaceful night,
We break the silence, Divine Saviour, cast Thine eyes on us!
Cast on us the fire of Thy mighty grace,
That all Hell may flee at the sound of Thy voice,
Cast sleep from a languishing soul
Thou who bears it to the limit of Thy laws,
O Christ, look favourably on this faithful people
Who gather now to bless Thee,
Receive the songs they offer To Thy immortal glory
And Thy gifts which they return manifold!

Why Not Join Us?

The West Somerset Singers are looking for new members (particularly tenors!) to join them in the Autumn term. At present we do not hold auditions and whilst the ability to read music is helpful it is not an essential requirement.

We meet on Monday evenings for two terms in the Gwyn Williams room at Taunton School. Our next rehearsal will take place on Monday September 12th 2011 at 7.30pm when we'll begin work on a varied Christmas programme.
